Personal Data Protection Law

Part (1) Provisions with respect to processing

Section One Introductory Provisions

Article (1) Definitions

In the course of implementing the provisions of this Law, and unless the context requires otherwise, the following words and expressions shall have the following assigned meanings:

Data or Personal Data: any information in any form concerning an identified individual, or an individual who can, directly or indirectly, be identified by reference, in particular, to his or her personal identification number, or by reference to one or more factors specific to his or her physical, physiological, intellectual, cultural, economic, or social identity. In determining whether an individual is identifiable, all the means that the data controller or any other person uses or may have access to should be taken into consideration.

Sensitive Personal Data: any personal information revealing –directly or indirectly– about an individual’s race, ethnical origin, political or philosophical opinions, religious beliefs, affiliation to union, personal criminal record, or any information in relation to his health or sexual status.

Processing: any operation or set of operations which is performed upon personal data, whether or not by automatic means, including collecting, recording, organizing, classifying into groups, storing, adapting, altering, retrieving, using, disclosing by transmission, dissemination, transference or otherwise making available for others, or combining, blocking, erasing or destructing such data.

Filing system: any set of personal data that does not get processed by means of automatic equipment operating in response to instructions given for that purpose, but is rather structured in such a way that information relating to a particular individual's personal data is readily accessible.

Person: any natural or legal person, including any public entity.

Individual: any natural person.

Data Controller: a person who, either alone or jointly with other persons, determines the purposes and means of processing any particular personal data; except that where the purposes and means of the processing of personal data are determined by law, the person entrusted with the processing obligation is deemed for the purposes of this Law to be the data controller.

Data processor: a person, other than an employee of the data controller or data processor, who processes personal data for the Data Controller's benefit and on the Data Controller's behalf.

Data protection guardian: The person appointed by the Authority pursuant to Article (10) of this Law.

Data Subject: The person or individual subject of data.

Third party: any person other than any of the following:

1. Data subject;
2. Data controller;
3. Data processor;
4. Data protection guardian; or
5. Any person, under the direct authority of the data controller or data processor, authorized to process data for the benefit of data controller or data processor.

Data recipient: Any person to whom personal data is disclosed, whether a third party or not, provided that disclosure is not for the purpose of pursuing a particular jurisdiction or to exercise a particular public duty.

Blocking: marking stored data, by any means, to prevent its further processing, except for storing it.

Direct marketing: communication, by whatever means, of any marketing material or advertisement which is directed to a particular person.

Minister: The Minister of Justice or any other Minister designated pursuant to a Decree.

Authority: Personal Data Protection Authority established pursuant to Article (27) of this Law.

Board or Board of Directors: the Authority's Board of Directors formed pursuant to Article (39) of this Law.

Chairman or Board's Chairman: The Chairman of Authority's Board of Directors.

Chief Executive: Chief Executive of the Authority appointed pursuant to Article (43) of this Law.

Appeals Committee: The committee as referred to in paragraph (2) of Article (34) of this Law.

Investigation Committee: The committee formed pursuant to Paragraph (5) of Article (47) of this Law.

Article (2) Scope of Application

1. This Law shall apply to any processing, where performed as follows:

1. Processing of data by total or partial automatic means.
2. The processing by non- automatic means of data which form part of a filing system or are intended to form part of a filing system.

2. This Law shall apply to the following persons:

1. Every natural person who is habitually resident in the Kingdom or maintains a place of business in the Kingdom;
2. Every legal person with a place of business in the Kingdom;
3. Every natural or legal person not habitually resident nor maintains a place of business in the Kingdom, but processes data by using means situated in the Kingdom, unless such means are used only for purposes of transit of data over the Kingdom's territory.

3. Every legal person identified under Paragraph 2(c) of this Article shall appoint a representative who is authorized on his behalf to undertake obligations in the Kingdom as set out under this Law, and shall immediately notify the Authority about such appointment and all amendments thereof. This appointment shall not preclude any legal recourse that could otherwise be initiated by the Authority or others against the data controller upon the data controller's violation of any of his specified duties.

4. Notwithstanding provisions of Paragraph (1) of this Article, the provisions of this Law shall not apply to the following:

1. The processing of data undertaken by any individual for the sole purposes of this individual's personal or family affairs; and
2. Processing operations concerning public security handled by the Ministry of Defense, Ministry of Interior, National Guard, National Security Service, or other security body in the Kingdom.

5. The provisions of this Law shall not prejudice any duties of confidentiality in relation to the Bahrain Defense Force matters.

Section Two General rules for legitimate Processing

Article (3) Requirements for data quality control

The following shall be complied with, in regards to personal data that is processed:

1. Personal data is processed fairly and lawfully.
2. Personal data is collected for specific, explicit and legitimate purpose and shall not be further processed in a way incompatible with the purpose for which it was collected. Further processing of personal data for historical, statistical or scientific purposes shall not be considered incompatible with this requirement subject to ensuring that the data is not processed for supporting any decision or measure regarding a particular individual.
3. Personal data should be adequate, relevant and not excessive in relation to the purpose for which it was collected or further processed.
4. Personal data should be correct, accurate and, where relevant, kept up to date; and
5. Shall not be kept in a form which permits identification of data subject once the purpose for which the data was collected or further processed was achieved. Personal data that is stored for longer periods for historical, statistical or scientific use, shall only be kept in anonymous form, by modifying the Personal data into a form in which it cannot be associated with the data subject, if that is not possible, the identity of the data subjects must be encrypted.

Article (4) General Conditions for legitimate Processing

Processing Personal data is prohibited without the data subject's consent, unless the processing is necessary for:

1. performance of a contract to which the data subject is a party;
2. taking steps at the request of the data subject with the purpose of entering into a contract;
3. the compliance with any legal obligation, other than an obligation imposed by contract, or the compliance with orders issued by a competent court or the Public Prosecution;
4. protecting the vital interests of the data subject; or

5. Pursuing the legitimate interests of the Data Controller or any third party to whom personal data has been disclosed to, provided that it is not in conflict with fundamental rights and freedoms of the data subject.

Article (5) Specific Conditions for the Processing of Sensitive Personal Data

The processing of sensitive personal data is prohibited without the data subject's consent, except where the following applies:

1. processing is necessary for the purposes of carrying out the obligations and rights of the data controller, as stipulated by law with respect to those working under his authority in the course of employment,
2. processing is necessary to protect any individual, where the data subject or the data subject's custodian, legal guardian, or conservator, is legally incapable of giving his or her consent, subject to obtaining the Authority's prior approval pursuant to Article (15) of this Law;
3. processing relates to data which is made available to the public, by the data subject;
4. processing is necessary for pursuing any legal claims or defenses, including the needed preparations thereof;
5. processing that is necessary for the purposes of preventive medicine, medical diagnosis, provision of healthcare or treatment, or for the management of healthcare services which is carried out by a licensed member of a medical profession, or by any other person who is bound by a duty of confidentiality as imposed by law;
6. processing carried out in the course of activities of associations, of all kinds, unions and other non-profit-seeking bodies, provided that:
 - a. the processing is carried out only where necessary for the purpose of what the association, union or body has been established for;
 - b. the processing relates solely to data which belongs to the members of this association, union, body or individuals who have regular contact with such association, union or body with reference to the nature of its activity; and
 - c. the data shall not to be disclosed to any other person, except where the data subject consents to such disclosure.
7. Processing is carried out by a competent public body to the extent necessary to carry out its legitimate duties as laid down by virtue of a law.
8. Processing of data relating to racial, ethnic, or religious origins where the processing is necessary for the purpose of identifying the existence or absence of equality of opportunity or treatment between members of the society of different racial or ethnic or religious origins, provided that such processing is carried out with appropriate safeguards for the rights and freedoms of data subjects as prescribed by law.

The Board shall issue a resolution setting out all rules and procedures applicable to Data Controllers with regards to the processing referred to herein.

Article (6)
Processing of data for purposes of press, literature and arts

Articles (3), (4) and (5) of this Law shall not apply to processing of personal data carried out exclusively for purposes relating to press, arts, or literature, provided that:

1. data is correct, accurate and is kept up to date;
2. providing safeguarding measures to prevent the use of data for purposes other than those related to press, arts, and literature; and
3. processing is in compliance with laws organizing Press, printing, and publishing.

Article (7)
Processing of data with respect to instituting and pursuing of criminal proceedings, and related judgments

1. It is prohibited to process personal data concerning instituting and pursuing of criminal proceedings, or processing of personal data in judgments reached in criminal proceedings, except for the following:

4. Processing by attorneys at law, as far as necessary to pursue interests of their clients;
5. Processing that is necessary to carry out the profession of journalism or for scientific research purposes.

2. The exceptions granted by virtue of Paragraph (1) of this article does not derogate from the obligations of maintaining confidentiality of data as the law may prescribe. The Board shall pass a resolution setting out specific conditions and safeguards to be adhered to for protecting the confidentiality of the data referred to herein.

3. A complete register of criminal cases and judgments delivered in criminal proceedings, may be created and kept only by the Public Prosecution, Military Judiciary, Military Prosecution, Ministry of Justice, and Ministry of Interior.

Article (8)
Security of Processing

1. The Data Controller shall implement appropriate technical and organizational measures to guarantee protection of data against accidental or unauthorized destruction, accidental loss, as well as against alteration or disclosure of, access to and any other unauthorized forms of processing. Such measures shall ensure providing appropriate level of security taking into account the latest technological security measures, the associated cost, the nature of the data to be processed and the potential risks involved. The technical and organizational measures must be recorded and accessible by all relevant parties, the Authority, Data Controller and Data Processor.
2. The Board shall pass a resolution prescribing particular conditions to be met in the technical and organizational measures referred to under Paragraph (1) of this Article. When processing personal data, the resolution may impose specific security measures on certain activities.
3. Where the data processor is entrusted with the processing of the data, the data controller shall:
 1. choose a data processor who provides sufficient safeguards in respect of implementing the technical and organizational measures necessary when processing data. The data controller must take reasonable steps to ensure compliance with those measures; and
 2. Ensure that the processing is only carried out pursuant to a written contract between the data processor and the data controller, which shall stipulate in particular that:
 - i. The Data Processor will only act on a processing pursuant to the data controller's instructions; and
 - ii. The Data Processor complies with obligations equivalent to those imposed on the data controller with respect to security and confidentiality.

Article (9) Confidentiality of Processing

1. The Data Controller must not disclose any personal data without the data subject's consent or in execution of a judicial order issued by a competent court, Public Prosecution, investigation judge or Military Prosecution.
2. The Data Controller must not process any personal data in breach of the provisions of this Law. In all circumstances, an individual who has access to personal data must not undertake any processing without the data controller's consent or in execution of a judicial order issued by a competent court, investigation judge, Public Prosecution, or Military Prosecution. They also, must not use the personal data for their personal benefit, or for the benefit of others. Prohibition shall remain valid even after termination of the employment relationship or contract duration.

Article (10) Data Protection Guardian

- 1. The Data Protection Guardian is responsible for the following:
 1. Assisting the data controller in exercising his rights and adhering to his duties as prescribed under the provisions of this Law;
 2. liaising between the Authority and Data Controller with respect to the data controller's implementation of specific provisions related to the processing of personal data;
 3. ensuring that the Data Controller processes personal data in compliance with the provisions of this Law, and in the event of the Personal Data Guardian identifying any violation regarding this matter, he shall immediately bring it to the attention of the Data Controller to eliminate the causes of violation or undertake the necessary rectification as soon as possible;
 4. notifying the Authority upon obtaining new evidence concerning the committed violations which the Data Controller has not yet rectified nor eliminated its causes, after a period exceeding ten days from his notification thereof;
 5. Maintaining a register of the processing which the Data Controller is obliged to notify the Authority about, in accordance with the provisions of Article (14) of this Law. The Data Controller shall maintain the register if a Data Protection Guardian is not appointed. The register shall comprise, at least, of the information prescribed under the said Article. The Data Protection Guardian shall provide the Authority with an updated version of the register once every month ; and
 6. Data protection Guardian shall perform his duties independently and impartially.

- 2. The Authority shall create a register entitled "Data Protection Guardians Register" where recognition of a Data Protection Guardian is subject to being recorded in the Register. The Board shall pass a resolution prescribing the Data Protection Guardian's duties, specifically the necessary conditions regarding who shall be recorded under the register, the procedures of recording, duration and renewal thereof.

- 3. A fee shall be imposed on an application to record under the register as prescribed by Paragraph (2) of this Article. Additionally, a fee shall be imposed on an annual basis, if an application to record in the said register has been approved, and for renewals thereof. The Minister shall issue a decision, pursuant to the Council of Minister's approval, prescribing the types of fees, and identifying situations of exemptions from and refund of fee.

- 4. The Data Controller may appoint a Data Protection Guardian, however, the Board may pass a resolution obliging certain categories of Data Controllers to appoint a Data Protection Guardian. In all circumstances, the Data Controller must notify the Authority within three (3) working days of such appointment.

Article (11) Registers Data

1. The personal data recorded in the Registers, accessible to the public, must be within the limits of necessity, and for the purposes for which such registers were created.
2. The Board shall pass a resolution prescribing the conditions to be considered when creating the registers as referred to in Paragraph (1) of this Article.

Section Three Transfer of Personal Data outside the Kingdom

Article (12) Transfer of personal data to countries or territories with adequate protection

The Data Controller is prohibited from transferring personal data outside the Kingdom, except for the following cases:

1. The transfer is to a country or territory that is listed in a record compiled and updated by the Authority, comprising of countries and territories that, upon the Authority's discretion, provide adequate legislative and regulatory protection for personal data. Such record shall be published in the Official Gazette.
2. A transfer occurs upon the Authority's authorisation on a case-by-case basis provided that the data will be subject to an adequate level of protection. The adequacy of such level of protection shall be assessed in the light of all the circumstances surrounding the data transfer operation, which shall include in particular the following:
 - i. the nature of the data to be transferred, purpose and duration of processing;
 - ii. the country or territory of origin of the data, its final destination, and available measures, in such countries and territories, to protect personal data; and
 - iii. Relevant international agreements and legislations that are in force in the country or territory, which the data shall be transferred to.The aforementioned authorisation may be conditional or for a certain timeframe.

Article (13) Exemptions

1. Notwithstanding the provisions of Article (12) of this Law, the Data Controller may transfer personal data outside the Kingdom to another country or territory that does not provide adequate level of protection in any of the following circumstances:

1. if the data subject has given his consent to the transfer;
2. If the transfer is for data obtained from a register compiled in accordance with the law for the purpose of providing information to the public, whether it is available for the public or limited to any person demonstrating a legitimate interest, in accordance with certain conditions. In such case, accessing this information shall be in accordance with stipulated conditions concerning accessing the register.

3. If the transfer is necessary for:
 1. the performance of a contract between the data subject and the Data Controller or taking steps, at the request of the data subject, with the purpose of entering into a contract;
 2. the conclusion or performance of a contract entered into, in the interest of the data subject, between the Data Controller and a third party;
 3. protecting the vital interests of the data subject;
 4. Complying with an obligation prescribed in law, not being a contractual obligation, or complying with an order from a competent court, the Public Prosecution, the investigation Judge, or the Military Prosecution; or
 5. Preparing or pursuing a legal claim or defense.

2. Without prejudice to Paragraph (1) of this Article, the Authority may authorize a transfer of personal data, or collection thereof, to another country or territory that does not ensure an adequate level of protection within the meaning of Article (12) of this Law, where the Data Controller adduces adequate safeguards with respect to the protection of the privacy and fundamental rights and freedoms of individuals. These safeguards may –in particular- be prescribed according to a contract to which the Data controller is a party, and the Authority shall accordingly subject the grant of such authorisation to fulfilment of certain conditions.

Section Four Notifications and Authorizations

Article (14) Notification to the Authority

1. The Data Controller shall give prior notice to the Authority of any wholly or partially automated processing operation, or set of such operations, intended to serve a single purpose or several related purposes.

The Data Controller is not required to give prior notice in respect of:

1. processing the sole purpose of which is the keeping, according to the law , of a register that is intended to provide information to the public and is accessible either by the public in general or limited to those with legitimate interest;
2. processing carried out in the course of activities related to associations, of all types, unions, and any non-profit-seeking body;
3. employer processing data in relation to his employees' data to the extent necessary to perform his duties, obligations, organize his matters, pursue his rights and protecting his employees' rights;
4. in situations where a Data Protection Guardian is appointed.

2. A resolution by the Board shall determine applicable rules and procedures to submission of the notification prescribed in Paragraph (1) of this Article, and shall specifically include the following:

1. the name and address of the Data Controller and Data Processor, if any;
2. the purpose of the processing;
3. a description of the data and categories of data subjects and the data recipients or categories of recipient;
4. any proposed transfer of data to a country or a territory outside the Kingdom; and
5. General description allowing the Authority to perform a preliminary assessment of the appropriateness of available security measures pursuant to Article (8) of this Law.

3. The Board may pass a resolution, where a simplified version of the notification prescribed in paragraph (1) of this Article shall be sufficient, in situations where, due to the nature of the data to be processed, no infringement to the data subject's rights and freedoms as prescribed by law shall occur. The simplified notification shall be submitted pursuant to the rules and procedures issued in the aforementioned resolution and shall include the following:

1. the purpose of the processing;
2. the processed data or categories of processed data;
3. the categories of data subjects affected by such processing and the data recipients or categories of recipient;
4. the length of time during which the data may be stored; and
5. Information required to be included within the notification.

4. The Authority shall within ten working days of receipt of a notification made pursuant to Paragraphs (1) or (3) of this Article, inform the Data Controller to complete any deficiency in a notification within a period not exceeding fifteen days from date of request. The applicant shall stop the processing until the notification is deemed complete.

5. All notifications under Paragraphs (1) and (3) of this Article shall be promptly recorded, upon its receipt, in the register referenced under Article (16) of this Law. The Authority, upon its request of the Data Controller to complete any deficiencies in a notification pursuant to Paragraph (4) of this Article, shall, by virtue of a justified resolution, write-off incomplete notification from the register. The Authority shall immediately notify the Data Controller upon the issuance of such resolution.

6. The Data Controller shall notify the Authority of any change with respect to the information, which the Authority was notified with pursuant to this Article, within thirty days from the date of such change.

Article (15) Prior Authorisation

1. it is prohibited to process any of the following operations without obtaining the Authority's prior written authorisation:

1. Automatic processing of sensitive personal data as referenced under Paragraph (2) of Article (5) of this Law;
2. Automatic processing of biometric data necessary for the verification of an individual's identity;
3. Automatic processing of genetic data , unless carried out by physicians, or a specialist within a licensed medical establishment, and is necessary for preventative medicine, medical diagnosis or the administration of health care or treatment;
4. Automatic processing involving linkage between personal data files, of two or more data controllers, processed for different purposes; and
5. Processing that is done by means of visual recording, and used for surveillance purposes.

2. A request for authorisation shall be submitted and processed in accordance with the rules and procedures prescribed by a resolution issued by the Board. The same data should be included in the request for authorisation, and the notification prescribed in Article (14) of this Law. The Authority may, within five working days, of receipt of the request, instruct the Data Controller to complete any deficiency in the request, and the applicant shall complete such deficiency within the following five working days, or else, the Authority shall make its decision in consideration of the information given.

3. The Authority shall grant the authorisation where the request satisfies all conditions prescribed pursuant to a resolution issued by the Board. The Authority shall make a ruling on the request for authorisation and notify the concerned party of the decision within thirty days of submission thereof. If the Data Controller does not receive a reply within the period mentioned herein, it is deemed as an implied rejection.

Article (16) The Register

1. The Authority shall maintain a register entitled "The Notifications and Authorisations Register" recording the following:

1. Notifications referenced under Paragraph (1) of Article (14) of this Law, and all data to be included pursuant to Paragraphs (1)(a) to (1)(d) of the same Article.
2. Notifications subject to the simplified notifications provisions in accordance with Paragraph (3) of Article (14) of this Law, and all data to be included in such notifications pursuant to Paragraphs (3)(a) to (3)(d) of the same Article.

3. What may be issued by the Authority in response to the notifications referenced under Paragraphs (1)(a) and (1)(b) of this Article.
4. Notifications that are submitted to the Authority by the Data Controllers with respect to the changes to the notification data referenced under Paragraphs (1) (a) and (1) (b) of this Article.
5. Applications for obtaining prior authorisation pursuant to the provisions of Article (15) of this Law, the data included therein and resolutions passed by the Authority with respect to prior authorisation.
6. Any other data relevant to notices and authorisation which the Authority decides to record.

2. The Authority shall ensure that the Register is constantly updated to reflect any changes made to this data.

3. Any person may, according to specially designed form, request the Authority to inspect the Notices and Authorizations Register, free of charge, during the official working hours and in the presence of a competent employee from the Authority.

4. Any person, according to specially designed form, and upon payment of the fee prescribed, may request from the Authority to obtain printouts from the Notices and Authorizations Register or a certificate confirming that there is no entry in the register in respect of a specified matter. The Minister shall, pursuant to the Council of Minister's approval, issue a decision prescribing the referenced fee.

Section Five Rights of the Data Subject

Article (17) Information to be provided to the Data Subject

1. In situations where data is directly obtained from the data subject, the data controller shall brief the data subject , upon registration of such data, on the following:

1. the data controller's full name, his field of activity or profession, depending on the circumstances, and his address;
2. the purposes for which the data is intended to be processed; and
3. any further information that is necessary, having regard to the specific circumstances, to ensure fair processing of data to the data subject, including the following:
 1. Names of the recipients of the data or their categories;
 2. whether replying to any of the questions addressed to the data subject is mandatory or optional, as well as the possible consequences of failure to reply;

3. the data subject's right to be notified, upon his request, of the complete data concerning him, and his right to request its rectification;
 4. whether the Personal Data will be used for direct marketing purposes; and
 5. Any further information that enables the data subject to pursue his rights as prescribed under the provisions of this Law.
2. If data was not obtained from the data subject, the Data Controller shall provide the data subject, within five days from the date of commencing registration of such data, with the following:
1. Information under Paragraph (1) of this Article;
 2. The purposes for which the data was collected; and
 3. any further information that is necessary, having regard to the specific circumstances, to ensure fair processing of data to the data subject, including the following:
 1. The information referred to under Paragraph (1)(c) of this Article;
 2. The categories of data; and
 3. The origin of the data, except where the Data Controller is legally required not to disclose this information for reasons of professional secrecy.
3. Provisions of Paragraph (2) of this Article shall not apply to the following two cases:
1. Where processing of data is undertaken for statistical purposes or for the purposes of historical or scientific research, and where notification of the data subject is not possible or involves unusually burdensome efforts. The Board by virtue of a resolution, shall determine conditions of these situations.
 2. where processing is necessary for compliance with any legal obligation, not being an obligation imposed by contract, order from a competent court, the Public Prosecution, Investigation Judge, or Military Prosecution.
4. Non- exercise of any right under Paragraph (1) of this Article or Article (20) by the Data Subject, shall not be considered as a waiver of any rights prescribed pursuant to this Section.

Article (18)
Data Subject's Request to be notified upon processing of his Personal Data

1. The Data Controller, upon a request from the Data Subject with proof of identity, and free of charge, shall notify the Data Subject, within a period not exceeding 15 working days of request , if personal data concerning the Data Subject is being processed. Where such data is being processed in any way, the notification sent by the Data Controller shall be in an understandable form mentioning the following:

1. all the data being processed;
2. any information known or available to the Data Controller as to the source of the data, except where the confidentiality of the source is required by Law;
3. the purpose of the processing;
4. the names of the recipients of the data, or their categories; and
5. when such data is the sole basis for undertaking a decision that would directly affect the data subject's personal interests, the way in which the data will be used, shall be communicated in a manner that is clear to the average person, without prejudice to intellectual property rights or legitimate trade secrets.

2. A Data Controller, within a period not exceeding 10 days from receipt of a request made under Paragraph (1) of this Article, may notify the applicant to complete any deficiency in his request.

3. A data controller shall be entitled to reject incomplete requests made under Paragraph (1) of this Article, subject to complying with the requirements of Paragraph (2) of this Article and the expiry of the notification period. The Data Controller may reject a request if the Data Subject misuses his right in obtaining information. In this case, the Data Controller shall notify the applicant, within a period not exceeding fifteen working days of receipt of the request, of his reasoned decision to either accept or reject it, depending on the circumstances.

4. The data subject may file a complaint to the Authority against the data controller, where the request under Paragraph (1) has been rejected or if the period for response to the Data Subject's request has expired without the latter's receipt of any notice regarding the request.

Article (19) Notification to the Data Subject of the Right to Object to Direct Marketing

Where a Data Controller anticipates that personal data which is kept by him, including personal data that is required by law to be made available to the public, may be processed for the purposes of direct marketing, the data controller shall inform the data subject of the latter's right to submit, free of charge, his objection to the Data Controller with respect to such processing,

Article (20) Right to Object to Processing for Direct Marketing Purposes

1. The Data controller, within a period not exceeding 10 working days of date of receipt of a request from the data subject with proof of identity, shall not begin processing for the purposes of direct marketing of personal data in respect of the applicant or shall cease the processing.

2. The Data Controller shall notify the Data Subject, free of charge, within ten working days of receipt of request with any of the following:

2. The Board shall enable the Chief Executive to lay his defense before recommending his removal from office, and shall record such defense in an independent record. Where the Board recommends removal from office, the Chief Executive shall continue to carry out his duties until a Decree removing him from office is issued. Nevertheless, if recommendation for removal is based on Chief Executive's violation to requirements of honesty and decency, then a resolution by the Board shall be sufficient for such effect.

Part 3

Accountability of Data Controller and Data Guardian

Section One

Accountability by the Authority

Article (47)

Conducting Investigation

1. The Authority may initiate an investigation on its own motion, upon receiving a request from the Minister, or based on serious reports and complaints with the purpose of investigating alleged violations to provisions of this Law by the Data controller or Data Protection Guardian. The authority may as well carry out its investigation, in presence of serious evidence suggesting that violation is imminent.
2. The Authority shall, prior to commencing investigation procedures, notify the concerned Data Controller or Data Protection Guardian as the case may be, stating the reasons behind the Authority's view that a violation has occurred or is about to occur. The notice shall identify evidence, presumptions, and information in the Authority's possession with respect to the violation. However, preliminary investigation procedures may be carried out, pursuant to the Chairman's resolution, without serving such notice, if substantial evidence lead to the belief that investigation may be hindered, or that the truth may be lost. A notice shall be served once such reasons cease to exist
3. The concerned Data Controller or Data Protection Guardian shall have the right to reply to the notice within 7 working days from receiving the notice. The reply shall contain the defense, comments, and shall be accompanied with documents, presumptions, or any other supporting evidence.
4. The Authority, upon examination of the reply to the notice, may decide to dismiss the matter, or commence investigation procedures, and in both cases, a notification shall be delivered to concerned parties.
5. The Authority may carry out the investigation, or form a tripartite internal or external committee of competent individuals. The Authority may as well assign any qualified person to carry out such task.

Article (48)

Investigation procedures

1. The investigation committee, and upon commencement of investigation procedures, may request any party of an interest, to provide the committee within a prescribed period, with data, information, clarifications needed for investigation purposes, and relevant documents.
2. The concerned parties attending investigation sessions are entitled to be accompanied by attorneys. An attorney is allowed to speak, only when permitted by the investigation committee.
3. The investigation committee may ask the concerned parties attending the session, any question with the purpose of clarifying the matter, and may request an answer to be verbal or in writing within a prescribed period.
4. The committee shall provide the parties concerned with the investigation, a fair chance to defend their interests within the period prescribed for investigation. Accordingly, the committee shall hold hearing and discussion sessions to the parties, and their witnesses, while allowing them to state their views, and present their arguments and defenses.
5. The investigation committee shall hold necessary minutes to record its measures and proceedings.
6. If the requested data, information, clarifications, and relevant documents, by the committee, were not sufficient, or were not submitted within the prescribed period, the committee may continue its investigation and conclude findings based on the available data, information, clarifications and documents.
7. The Board may issue a resolution, stipulating additional regulations and procedures to achieve justice and fairness with respect to conducting investigation.

Article (49)

Requesting information, date, and documents from third party

1. Without prejudice to provisions of relevant laws, the investigation committee, and upon existing of substantial evidence indicating that a third party is in possession of data, information, or documents related to the subject matter of investigation, or if it is stored in a computer program under the third party's control, the committee may therefore order the third party to submit such date, information, or documents within a prescribed period, or by allowing the committee or whoever is assigned by the committee, to access the computer program in order to reveal such date, information or documents. Non-compliance with the above, entitles the committee, through the Authority, to issue writ on a petition from the High Court, ordering the holder, to implement such order. The court may issue its order as a summary judgment without summoning the holder. The latter however may object to the court order within 8 days of its issuance, and the court may uphold, amend or quash its order. In such case, the court's decision shall be justified based on its examination of documents and after hearing holder's statement, if possible.

2. Paragraph (1) of this Article shall not apply to correspondence or papers and documents submitted by the party concerned with the investigation, to his attorney or to a consultant expert to carry out their assigned tasks.

Article (50)
Delegation of Law enforcement officers

In carrying out its duties, the investigation committee, may delegate any of the law enforcement officers referred to in Article (36) of this Law to carry out any of their assigned duties.

Article (51)
Examination of witnesses

Subject to provisions of Articles (65) – (68) of Law of Evidence in Civil and Commercial matters promulgated by legislative Decree No (14) of 1996, and to Article (119) of Code of criminal procedures promulgated by Legislative Decree No (46) of 2002, the investigation committee may examine any witness whom the committee deems necessary, and shall examine any witnesses upon the concerned parties' request, unless the committee finds examining witnesses, in such case, to be pointless. If the committee is of the view that the witness conduct involves a crime, it shall prepare a memorandum which the Chief Executive shall refer to the Public Prosecution.

Article (52)
Termination of investigation procedures

The investigation Committee shall, within a period not exceeding 6 months from the date of commencement of investigation, submit to the Chief Executive, a reasoned report of its findings, accompanied with the complete investigation file. Before the expiry of the 6 months period, and upon the Committee's request, the Chief Executive may extend the prescribed period to additional period or periods not exceeding, in total, six months, provided that the delay is attributed to reasons beyond the committee's control.

Article (53)
Notification to concerned parties

The Chief Executive shall, within 3 working days of receiving the report prescribed in Article (52) of this Law, notify the concerned parties thereof, and shall provide them with a copy of the report and its attachments. The parties concerned with the investigation are entitled to submit a memorandum with their data, comments and supporting documents, as a defense, to the Chief Executive office within a period not exceeding 30 days from receiving the report and its attachments. In the event of investigation initiated by a complaint, and where the plaintiff exercises the right to reply to the committee's report, in such case, the plaintiff shall, and before the expiry of the specified period, provide the defendant with the a copy of his reply and supporting documents thereof via the Chief Executive Office. The defendant may, within a period equivalent to the one specified for the plaintiff, provide the Authority with his comments on the plaintiff's reply.

Article (54) Disposition of investigation

The report accompanied with Chief Executive Comments, shall be submitted to the Board. Submission shall be made by the Chief Executive in the first session taking place after the termination of the specified periods in paragraph (2) of Article (53) of this Law. The Board may decide to dismiss the investigation, or to declare that the alleged violation, was not proven against the Data Controller. In evidence of violation, the Board may adopt any of the measure prescribed in Article (55) of this Law, or it may refer the matter once again to the investigation committee for further inquiry, search and for completion of investigation.

Article (55) Permitted measures in evidence of violation

1. In evidence of violation, and without prejudice to provisions with respect to civil and criminal liability, the Board shall order the party committing the violation to, immediately or within a specified period of time, stop his conduct, and to remove reasons and effects thereof. Failure to abide by such order within the prescribed period, shall result in the Board's authority to issue the following reasoned resolutions:

1. Withdrawal of authorization granted pursuant to Article (15) of this Law, if violation is with respect to such authorization;
2. Imposing a daily penalty, to force the offender to stop his violation and remove its reasons and effects thereof. In the event of first time violation, the penalty shall not exceed BD1000/- per day. However, in the event of second time violation within 3 years from the date of issuing a decision with respect to the offender's first violation, the penalty shall be BD2000/- per day.
